

Electronic, Computer, TV and Household Goods Recycling Day – What we Do & Don't Take

Saturday, Oct. 17th, 2009, 9am -1pm, Rain or Shine, NHS parking lot

Computers, TV's and Electronics:

What We Do Take

All computers and components, monitors, desktop towers, keyboards, mouse, zip drives, external hard drives, external disk drives, external CD and DVD drives, printers, scanners, copiers, fax machines, stereos, amps, tape decks, CD players, walkmans, I-pods, MP3 players, cell phones, PDAs, all types of TVs, VCRs, DVD players, air-conditioners, microwaves, dehumidifiers, small appliances.

Big Brother Big Sister: Clothing, Household Goods & Furniture

What we Do Take

Clothing (for men, women, and children): coats, jackets, jeans (new, used, faded, ripped) Jewelry, purses, shoes/sneakers, shirts, sweatshirts, t-shirts,

Household items like: blankets, books, clocks, curtains, dishes (must be packed for moving), doilies, fabric, irons, knickknacks, pictures, pillowcases, pots/pans, silverware, small space rugs, sporting goods (no skis or exercise equipment), toys (no large plastic toys or outdoor toys - toys should fit in a moving box), books.

What we Don't Take

We cannot take: batteries, box springs, mattresses, cots, building supplies, cars, boats, car seats, charcoal grills, gas grills, exercise equipment, hazardous materials, large appliances (microwave size and bigger), magazines, encyclopedias, newspapers, organs, pianos, rug pads, sofa beds, space heaters, tires, water heaters, outdoor toys/outdoor furniture, halogen lamps, carpeting, tools, skis/boots/poles. We cannot accept most infant items, including cribs, strollers, highchairs, car seats and playpens, because they are often recalled.

We are NOT Accepting Furniture at this event - However, we are planning on offering it at our next big CYA Day event in May 2010 – please check back for details.

We are not offering Paper Shredding at this Oct. 17th event – So sorry:

However, we are planning on offering it at our next big CYA Day event in May 2010 – please check back for details.